

Facing page, clockwise: PULLOVER: Women's cotton-blend invisible (see-through) stripe lightweight knit sweater is available in sizes XS-L. About $230. Cynthia Rowley, 376 Bleecker St., 242-3803

PUMPS: Vicini sling-back, four-inch heels. About $520. Giuseppe Zanotti Design Boutique, 806 Madison Ave., 650-0455

POUCH: Medium-size cosmetic case in vinyl with zipper closure and laminated trim. About $70. Kate Spade New York, 135 Fifth Ave., 358-0420

FRAME: Lacquer Frame by Disturbed Stripe holds a 4-inch-by-six-inch photo. About $78. Henri Bendel, 712 Fifth Ave., 1-800-423-6335

This page, clockwise: PORCELAIN TEA SERVICE: Sugar bowl, about $357; saucer with red edging, about $75; teapot with yellow accents, about $375; creamer with purple handle, about $110. Paul Smith Soho, 142 Greene St., 1-646-613-3060

SHIRT: Men's navy and pink poplin button-down shirt with French cuffs and pocket square. About $265. Eton of Sweden, 625 Madison Ave., 758-3866

SATCHEL: Unisex, linen Stowaway 1 tote features leather handles and tab, plus interior zipper and utility pockets. About $395. Ghurka, Shops at The Plaza, 1 W. 58th St., Grand Concourse Level, 826-8300

HAT: Italian-made Borsalino Due Pezzi Milan men's straw fedora with grosgrain trim is available in sizes S-XXL. About $250. J.J. Hat Center, 310 Fifth Ave., 239-4368

Between the Lines

Straight from the runway: Stripes—in every width and color—are drawing marked attention this season. Seen in dozens of designer collections, the classic 1970s favorite has been totally revamped with a decidedly fresh and deliciously playful point of view.